

MONIKA JANKOWSKI, DVM, DACVIM

Oncology

Dr. Jankowski is from Maryland and completed her bachelor's degree near home at the University of Maryland. Then she was off to the Midwest where she earned her doctor of veterinary medicine degree from Iowa State University. Following graduation she headed back east to the Animal Medical Center in New York City for a small animal surgery and medicine rotating internship. After working in private practice, she headed west once again to complete medical oncology residency training and receive a master's degree at Colorado State University. Once her residency was complete, she practiced veterinary oncology in Arizona for four years before deciding to move back to the east coast once again. In her free time, Dr. Jankowski enjoys getting lots of fresh air participating in outdoor sports from skiing to mountain biking.
